

PANDIT RADHA PRASAD

Radha Prasad was born and brought up in India and taught himself to play the bamboo flute at a very early age. He came to Bombay after hearing the music of Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia, India's foremost and world-renowned flutist, and received 18 years of rigorous and comprehensive training in the typical "Teacher-Disciple." tradition of India under Pandit Chaurasia. This training provided him with broad knowledge of Indian classical and folk music with specialization in bamboo flute. In 1990 "VRINDABAN FLUTE INSTITUTE" of Bombay run by Pandit Chaurasia granted him the degree of Master of Arts in Music.
